

Beitragsordnung Contribution Rules

§ 1 Principle

These Rules of Contribution are not part of the Statutes. They regulate the contribution obligations of the members. They may only be amended by the General Meeting of the Association (concerning personal membership fees) or by resolution of the entire Board (concerning companies and associations).

§ 2 Resolutions

The General Assembly shall decide on the amount of the membership fees for personal memberships. The membership fees for companies and associations shall be determined by the General Council. 2.

The amounts set shall be levied on 1 January of the following year in which the resolution was passed. A different date may be fixed by resolution.

§ 3 Contributions: Forms and amounts of membership fees

a) Membership fees for individuals

According to the resolution of the General Assembly of 12.10.2011, the annual membership fee for personal members will be set at 50 € from 2012. Student members will be charged an annual membership fee of €10.

Retired members can be exempted from membership fees after application to the Executive Committee. No fee is charged for honorary members, honorary chairpersons and holders of the Adolf Martens Medal.

b) Membership fees for companies and associations (supporting members)

By resolution of the full Executive Committee on 08.02.2017, the following membership fees for supporting memberships were decided:

up to 200 employees: EUR 460.00
200 - 400 employees: EUR 920.00
400 - 1,000 employees: EUR 1,390.00
over 1,000 employees: EUR 1,620.00

The membership fee shall be charged in writing and shall be payable by the payment deadline stated on the invoice. For personal members, payment by direct debit is possible after written instruction by the member. The membership fee will then be collected by the AWT office with a payment deadline indicated on the invoice. In case of non-compliance with the payment deadlines, reminder fees may be charged.

§ 4 Exclusion

Non-payment of the membership fee leads to the exclusion of the member at the end of the calendar year after two reminders, unless the General Board decides otherwise.
